

Excel for 5th grade

Unit Living and Non-Living Thing

Theme Flags of the world

Aim: Read and understand main facts about nationalities, countries and flags

Can use common verbs followed by infinitive

1. Greetings.

2 . Lets remember the names of countries and flags

3. Look at the new words. Write down them in copy books

- ▶ Design-дизайн
- ▶ Golden-золотой
- ▶ Beam-луч
- ▶ Patron saint-святой покровитель
- ▶ Steppe eagle-степной орел
- ▶ Ornamental pattern-декоративная модель
- ▶ Background-фон
- ▶ Government-правительство

4. Every country has got a flag. Here are some flags of the world with some interesting designs.

This is the flag of Kazakhstan. In the centre of the flag, there is a golden sun with 32 beams and a golden steppe eagle underneath. It also has got a golden ornamental pattern down one side. It has got a sky-blue background.

The Union Jack is the flag of the United Kingdom. It is the flags of three patron saints: the red cross of Saint George of England, the white cross on a blue background for Saint Andrew of Scotland, and the red cross of Saint Patrick of Ireland.

The flag of Wales has a red dragon on it. The background is green and white. You can see this flag on government buildings in Wales.

5. Read the text and mark the sentences T(true) or F(false)

- 1 The flag of Kazakhstan has a golden eagle over the golden sun.
- 2 There is an ornamental design on two sides on the flag of Kazakhstan.
- 3 The flag of the UK is more than one flag.
- 4 The white cross on the Union Jack is for Saint Andrew.
- 5 The Welsh flag has a red eagle on it.
- 6 The flag of Wales is on all buildings in Wales.